

ArtsEd Disability Statement

The Arts Educational Schools want to attract people of high potential to study and work here. That is likely to include some people who are living with a disability or long-term health condition. Some people may not need any extra support, but for others making ‘reasonable adjustments’ (as defined by The Equality Act, 2010) will enable them to flourish.

Please tell your Head of Year or Line Manager if you have a disability or long-term health condition.

Why tell ArtsEd that you are disabled?

- so that we can make the ‘reasonable adjustments’ that you may need in your work or study;
- so that staff understand any difficulties you may have, and can help you;
- so that we can monitor whether our processes such as staff recruitment are carried out fairly.
