I am delighted that you have chosen to find out more about ArtsEd Sixth Form, a national centre of excellence for the study of the performing arts. Founded 100 years ago by two ground-breaking educationalists, Grace Cone and Olive Ripman, our ethos remains true to their vision, to provide a broad and balanced education, stretching students to achieve their academic as well as their artistic potential.

The most recent review of ArtsEd by the Independent Schools Inspectorate, in November 2019, judged the quality of students' academic, vocational and personal development as excellent.

Our combination of expert teachers meeting young talented minds creates a truly dynamic environment for teaching and learning. Constructive learning relationships, built by dedicated staff with a strong ethos of nurture and individualism, enables each student to flourish as a person, as a learner, and as a performer. This successful blend of outstanding vocational training, excellent academic tuition and focused pastoral care instils in our students a deep-seated confidence and a broad range of skills, giving them the scope at 18+, to pursue a path that's right for them.

For over 100 years, ArtsEd alumni have significantly influenced creative industries and beyond on a global scale. They include doctors, lawyers and high-flying executives, as well as leading choreographers, directors and producers. Emerging performing talent includes Thomas Dennis who left the Sixth Form for the lead role in The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time before moving on to star as Albert Narracott in the National Theatre's War Horse; Ella Balinska recently seen as Jane in the new Charlie's Angels film and Billy Nevers, who went straight onto roles in Jesus Christ Superstar and &Juliet on leaving last year.

ArtsEd Sixth Form students come from across the UK and internationally. Their unique mix of talents and backgrounds, and their support and encouragement of one another, creates an irrepressible energy. An energy that runs through everything that our students do.

Enjoyment, as much as excellence, is part of everyone's day at ArtsEd. Don't take our word for it, come and see for yourself. Come to our Virtual Open Evening or book a visit.

I very much look forward to meeting you.

Our Ethos

Our focus on nurturing the individual and their unique talents encourages every one of our pupils to flourish.

Exceptional pastoral care combined with expert teaching inspire pupils' confidence, curiosity and commitment to all of their studies, both academic and vocational. Our aim is for every student to leave ArtsEd as a creative, articulate and imaginative young adult, assured of their ability to achieve their best in their chosen field.

“A standout performing arts school”

The Stage 2018

Our ethos is underpinned by our Six Pillars:

Aspiration

“Don’t just aim high, aim higher!”

ArtsEd is the best place for any young person with talent and ambition. A recognised award-winning centre of excellence in the performing arts, we have been nurturing creative and talented children since 1919.

Resilience

“Do not judge me by my success, judge me by how many times I fell down and got back up again”

---

Resilience is such an important quality to develop in the modern world, and especially for anyone considering a career in the performing arts. We aim to develop everyone’s ability to ‘bounce back’ and to stay focused in the face of challenges or disappointment.

Teamwork

“Alone we can do so little, together we can achieve so much more”

---

In every classroom, studio and theatre space the skills needed for successful teamwork are demonstrated and reinforced allowing for a genuine sense of collaboration to develop. Our community of teachers, parents, students and pupils creates a place of passion and commitment for all to accomplish something incredible.

Self-discipline

“Discipline, not desire determines your destiny”

Self-discipline is a key quality we foster, encouraging pupils to develop a range of aptitudes and skills that see them grow as independent, articulate problem-solvers who are enthusiastic, brave and bold.

Empathy

“Be kind, for everyone you meet is fighting a hard battle”

ArtsEd's success is built on strong pastoral relationships that support and motivate pupils. We foster individuality and personal growth as much as academic development, creating an environment that enables pupils to consider and understand situations from another's point of view.

Everyone is encouraged to demonstrate respect, understanding and empathy in all their relationships, by showing tolerance, courtesy and enthusiasm for learning.

Drive

“Your only limit is you”

Appreciating and making the most of every learning opportunity that comes their way is an attribute that lies at the heart of our pupils' success.

We enhance this quality by teaching them to celebrate every triumph, instilling an appreciation of the powerful role that personal drive plays in getting things done.

Nurturing Promise

ArtsEd offers pupils a unique opportunity. To fully develop their promise as performers and creatives at the same time as enjoying the challenges of a full academic curriculum.

ArtsEd enjoys a consistent position as the most academically successful performing arts school in the UK. At the heart of this success lies a combination of exceptional pastoral care, expert vocational training and extensive academic curriculum.

Student Voice

We are committed to ensuring that students' opinions and suggestions are heard and valued. The Sixth Form Student Council play a key role in this endeavour, meeting regularly with their peers to gather opinions and discuss suggestions. The students' engagement with the daily life of the school has recently resulted in increased IT resources, enhanced lunch menus, improved recycling facilities and successful fundraising events.

Sixth Form students also run LGBTQ+, a support group that welcomes all, with the aim of raising awareness of LGBTQ+ issues by organising events throughout the year. In addition, at the beginning of the autumn term, Sixth Form Wellbeing ambassadors are nominated to promote positive mental health amongst their peers.

“The teachers at ArtsEd are really caring. They’re always there for a chat – they’re like our family in a way.”

Sixth Form Student

---

Pastoral Care

Our Pastoral Team is dedicated to supporting the wellbeing and development of each student as they progress through the Sixth Form.

Tutor groups meet weekly to talk through coursework queries, any homework challenges and to work through the PSHEE (Personal, Health, Social and Economic Education) curriculum. Discussions cover practical issues such as how to foster a positive mental attitude, develop emotional resilience and manage potential stress. The sessions also provide the time for advice and support about moving on to further training and education, including guidance on vocational courses and auditions and applications to UCAS.

“A key attribute of pupils is their ability to accept criticism and direction and they often show a strong desire for this, indicative of the desire they show to be the very best they can.”

Independent Schools Inspectorate – November 2019

Sixth Form Options

---

Our Sixth Form curriculum allows students to immerse themselves in the subjects that they love. They can focus entirely on their vocational development or pursue academic interests alongside their passion for the performing arts.

A choice of three different learning pathways ensures students can select the course of study best suited to their talents and ambitions. Students can choose to take one of the following options:

- BTEC Extended Diploma & one A Level
  - BTEC Extended Diploma & two A Levels (equivalent to five A Levels)
  - Three or four A Levels

BTEC Extended Diploma: Acting, Dance, Musical Theatre

A Levels: Art, History, History of Art, Dance, Drama & Theatre Studies, English Literature, French, Film Studies, Maths, Music, Photography, Politics

Level 3 BTEC Extended Diploma

---

The Level 3 BTEC Extended Diploma carries the equivalent UCAS points to three A Levels. Each course teaches students the professional and personal skills that will help them to move forward on their chosen path, be it continued training or employment. Alongside vocational training, students explore the history and business of the sector, giving them a clear insight into the opportunities and demands of the creative industry.

Assessment is varied and based on expectations of performers within the industry. This includes undertaking detailed research, keeping effective rehearsal logs and analysing and evaluating performance skills.

During the course, students complete a range of assignments, requiring the submission of written, verbal and practical evidence. The resulting portfolio determines the final grade. Detailed feedback is given throughout the programme to ensure students meet their full potential.

Studying at ArtsEd provides students with contacts and experiences that will give them a clear advantage throughout their careers, in what is an extremely competitive industry.

Our BTEC programmes offer students the exciting opportunity to learn in an organisation dedicated to the performing arts, with professional production teams and under expert guidance. Students emerge on completion of the courses as confident performers with a clear understanding of the demands of the performing profession.

BTEC Acting

Our BTEC Acting course is studio-based, and empowers students to hone their performance skills by exploring a variety of techniques. Students discover, explore, and reflect on their abilities whilst developing a solid foundation of practical skills.

An average week includes classes in acting technique, voice, movement skills, improvisation and text work, all of which is documented in a working journal.

“The BTEC Acting course is brilliant. The teachers are excellent and because class sizes are small, we get extra attention, ensuring that we’re keeping on top of everything.”

Sixth Form Pupil

Students form small companies to complete performance-based projects that form the basis of their assessment. Recent pieces have included:

- Hedda Gabler by Henrik Ibsen
- 13 by Mike Bartlett
- Party Time by Harold Pinter
- A Midsummer Night’s Dream by William Shakespeare
- Confirmation by Chris Thorpe

London theatre trips and workshops enhance the course, as do masterclasses and talks from industry professionals, including West End writers, directors and actors.

Full support is provided to students throughout the application and audition processes for further training, study or professional work.

Some Sixth Form graduates remain at ArtsEd to study on our degree course, many secure places at other leading drama schools including RADA, RCSSD, LAMDA and the Guildhall.

BTEC Musical Theatre

ArtsEd has a long history of producing many of the UK's leading musical theatre performers. Our BTEC in Musical Theatre has been designed to form the foundations of this training.

Students on this pathway rapidly develop the singing, dancing and acting skills necessary to progress in this demanding genre. Regular training in each area quickly establishes the level of discipline required and gives students the opportunity to master technique and gain full control of their performance skills.

In an average week, classes will include singing, acting, ballet, tap and jazz. These skills are assessed throughout the year in performance projects created by small companies of students.

Recent assessment performances have included:

- Hello Dolly by Herman and Stewart
- Urinetown by Greg Kotis
- Soho Cinders by Stiles and Drewe
- Violet by Teson and Crawley

The course is enhanced by regular theatre trips and workshops run by industry professionals, including music directors, choreographers and West End performers.

Full support is provided to students throughout the application and audition processes for further training, study or professional work.

Some Sixth Form graduates remain at ArtsEd to study on our degree course, many secure places at other leading drama schools including GSA, Mountview, RCSSD, LAMDA and the Guildhall.

“I think the best way to describe ArtsEd is just, vibrant! Every day is different, it’s full of new and exciting things. The teachers are so supportive and encouraging and you can see how passionate they are about the subjects they teach.”

Learning to take direction and use constructive criticism is a key element of the course and one that is both challenging and immensely rewarding.

Assessment is through performance, coursework and a final written examination. Recent students have enjoyed the experience of examined plays being performed in professional working theatres, including The Lyric Hammersmith and the Chiswick Playhouse.

It is an exciting and varied subject which equips students with detailed analytical skills and the means to better understand social history through the study of evolution in arts and architecture over the centuries.

Photography

Photography is a challenging and dynamic A Level that encourages experimentation and inventiveness. Students explore a broad range of approaches as they develop and express their artistic vision.

At the outset of the course students are given starting points, or photographic projects, to explore independently. The resulting images are showcased in a final exhibition.

English Literature

English Literature at A level is academically demanding and creatively stimulating. A range of prose, poetry and drama texts are studied and students learn to discuss, analyse and evaluate writers' choices, drawing links across works, traditions and genres.

Discussion and debate about historical context and contemporary influences are key elements of the curriculum. English Literature sits very well with a performing arts course, providing an additional way to study storytelling and the development of narrative.

Maths

Mathematics is a demanding and immensely rewarding subject at A Level. Students who enjoyed GCSE mathematics and have a creative streak should certainly consider studying the subject at a higher level.

Mathematics A Level demonstrates an ability to problem solve and think logically, aptitudes admired by both universities and employers. Students with a grade 7 or above in GCSE Mathematics and a desire to stretch themselves and explore the subject in greater detail will find the A Level an engaging course of study.

Dance

Our dance tutors combine teaching expertise with extensive performing experience. This first-hand knowledge of the industry equips them to recognise and foster students' individuality as performers at the same time as ensuring that technical skills are mastered.

The A Level Dance course is the perfect springboard for students hoping to pursue a career in dance and the performing arts. Students create and perform work whilst developing their knowledge of the many creative processes involved. Theoretical and practical classes, lecture demonstrations, discussion groups and theatre visits make up the core of the course, 50% of which is assessed in written exams.

Dance A Level is designed for students who are keen to learn about the world of dance and who enjoy working on both individual and collaborative choreography projects.

Music

A Level Music encourages students to combine imagination, talent and creativity with academic study, as they explore aspects of performance, composition and analysis.

This fascinating course allows students to gain a varied insight and in-depth foundation in UK and US government, politics and political ideas to help form a true understanding of society at large.

Shaping the Future

ng uture

Our transformational £20m capital project that will ensure ArtsEd retains its position as a provider of world-class performing arts training for many years to come. The first phase of this ten-year project was completed in November 2013 with the opening of the Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation Theatre, solely supported with a £3.5 million donation from the Foundation.

Shaping the Future

Shaping the Future's second phase, the transformation of an empty courtyard area in the heart of our Chiswick home, commenced in summer 2019. This major expansion has created three storeys of new studios, classrooms and rehearsal spaces. We will take possession of this fabulous new building in autumn 2020 and will be fully settled into our extended home by September 2021.

The Green Roof is the jewel in the crown of this new building. A versatile roof terrace and new drama studio on the top floor with fantastic views over London, this space will be for the exclusive use of Day School & Sixth Form students. The whole school is already looking forward to the opportunities that this new outdoor space will bring to everyday life at ArtsEd.

Fundraising is currently underway for the third and final phase of Shaping the Future, the ArtsEd Playhouse. This new theatre will perfectly complement the Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation Theatre, replacing our old Studio Theatre and enable students to hone their skills in an intimate and flexible performance space.

Shaping the Future embodies our commitment to ensuring that the standard of our training facilities matches the talent of our students and the exceptional quality of our teaching.

“This ambitious capital project comes at a pivotal moment for ArtsEd as it celebrates 100 years of nurturing young talent. The School is a leading contributor to the UK’s creative industries, internationally renowned for providing outstanding and contemporary training in the performing arts. Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation has been a long-term supporter of ArtsEd, including providing financial scholarships for talented young people from diverse backgrounds who have gone on to successful careers in the industry. I am immensely proud to be the founding supporter of Shaping the Future, a project that will ensure ArtsEd remains a centre of excellence for many years to come.”

The Trustees are informed about day-to-day activities via regular Board and Sub-Committee meetings. The Day School and Sixth Form Governance Sub-Committee meet termly and regularly visit the school to monitor day to day activity, and to attend public productions.

Trustees bring significant, appropriate experience and skills to bear in considering ArtsEd's strategic direction, and by taking part in various Committees as part of their management obligations. A full list of trustees can be found on our website.
